Do solar panels need adhesive?

In the solar industry, adhesives are used throughout the process of manufacturing and installation. Henkel's adhesive Loctite 3388P enables high-strength ingot bonding in solar applications. Thin-film solar panels (see page 296), in particular, need adhesives around the edges because they typically don't have frames to protect them.

Are solar adhesives weather resistant?

Weather resistance is a primary concern with the adhesives used to install solar panels, so solar manufacturers and installers should investigate how long the adhesives are going to last in the harsh conditions of a typical solar installation. An introduction to solar adhesives from our 2012 Renewable Energy Handbook.

Do thin film solar panels need adhesive?

Thin-film solar panels (see page 296), in particular, need adhesives around the edges because they typically don't have frames to protect them. They need an additional moisture barrier called a side or edge seal. Many manufacturers use butyl, either in a liquid or tape form. Butyl-casting resins provide water vapor-tight sealing.

Why do you need adhesives for a photovoltaic system?

Adhesives are also used to ease the installation of junction boxes. They make the boxes easier to install and also protect the boxes from water. Given that water and electricity don't mix well together, this is absolutely essential to the overall effectiveness of the entire photovoltaic system.
