

Many studies reviewed solar parabolic troughs or some of its components separately. Sokhansefat et al. [33] showed many models for simulating the flow in a trough collector absorber tube assume that the solar flux is uniform and many correlations in the models are based on a uniform temperature. Martín et al. [34] identified the different energy policy ...

Solar parabolic trough collector (SPTC) consists of an absorber (working fluid chamber), a concentric transparent cover and a parabolic reflector plate. The absorber is fixed permanently at the focus of the parabolic concentrator. The concentric transparent cover is used to protect the absorber tube from the heat losses and hence a vacuum ...

The research team performed a detailed bottom -up manufacturing cost estimate for an advanced parabolic trough design -- the Solar Dynamics Sunbeam-MT (Sunbeamid M-Term). This includes all components for manufacturing and assembly in a manufacturing facility (e.g. space frame and arms), and the purchased parts (e.g. mirrors and receiver tubes

Salto region in Uruguay is identified as the most suitable location for concentrated solar power projects. Optimized plants yield solar multiples of 3 or higher for solar power tower and around 4 for parabolic trough, with storage sizes ranging from 12 to 15 h, depending on the location.

Progress in beam-down solar concentrating systems. Evangelos Bellos, in Progress in Energy and Combustion Science, 2023. 1.1.1 Parabolic trough collector. Parabolic trough solar collector is the most mature solar concentrating technology [22] which is used for power production [23], as well as for a series of applications like solar cooling [24], desalination [25], industrial processes ...

The best solution for collecting a large amount of solar radiation from the sun is a parabolic solar concentrator. This is due to the fact that parabolic solar concentrators have two solar tracking axis and can provide indicative temperatures ranging from 100 ^oC to 1500 ^oC depending on solar intensity, aperture area, and other variables [15 ...
